PARNELL'S RENT BILL THE GOVERNMENT TO OPPOSE THE IRISH LEADERS' MEASURE.

Chamberlain's Probable Attitude—Delisle's Bill Aligned at the Nationalists—The Bulgarian Crisis—Disposing Russian Troops to Bulgaria—Demand of the Bulgarian Nobles—Sensational Reports of a Threatened Uprising in India—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

London, September 7.—Parnell's new land bill has won its first. The Government is willing to discuss it, although preparing to oppose it. It was obviously not their line to accept a scheme which would cut down the rents at one stroke by 25 per cent. Of course opponents death to the bill. Chamberlain's attitude will be watched with particular interest. He has declared for two of Parnell's three points. If to avoid inconvenience to the Government he refrained to vote for the bill, he will suffer a further diminution. Parnell might have done better if he had been more persistent in his opposition of the evictions until the government commission reported upon the results of the inquiry. He is well aware that the landlords at the expense of dishonest tenants. It is felt that to inquire into the matter is impossible. Thus although Parnell denies such intention he practically makes a suspension of his abstention. The proposed reduction of 25 per cent, and even his tenantry, if the latter can pay in full, Gladstone is the subject of the bill. I hear that he expresses great satisfaction that the Government has come to terms.

UP OF IRISH LEGISLATION

This session. Outside of Parliament the rumor goes that Churchill will be asked to Parnell's bill, and on condition that the estimates be got out of the way speedily. This is another illustration of the tenacity of Churchill. The Bulgarian business promises a new difficulty. The British Government is in a quandary. Alexander has agreed to hold on. In the statement in the House last night, depicting the treachery and violence of the rebels, he has succeeded in it, is however, impossible for the Prince to maintain himself against the three English leaders. He now sees that his work in Bulgaria is done, but presuming that the application is realized, it will be difficult for him to get out. He will go much further. The new Prince must be elected by Bulgarians and confirmed by the people. The British are so seriously hurt that he will be made an effective stroke.

A PREMATURE REPORT.

The statement that England is about to abandon the island of Port Hamilton is premature.

Bulgaria.

DEMANDS OF THE NOBLES.

SOFT, September 7.—Bulgarian nobles have joined in a petition to the Czar. They ask whether Russia will allow the National Assembly to elect a successor to Prince Alexander and whether Russia will grant Bulgaria a loan. If their demands are not acceded to the nobles intend to oppose the departure of Prince Alexander.

RUSIAN THROES FOR BULGARIA.

VIENNA, September 7.—The Neue Freie Presse says that many troops are being shipped to Odessa, ostensibly for the Crimea, but really, it is believed, in readiness for action in Bulgaria.

ADVOCATING A REGENCY.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 7.—The Novoe Vremya advocates the formation of a Bulgarian regency, which shall enjoy the confidence of Russia and inherit Prince Alexander's right to govern Eastern Bulgaria. The same paper discusses the union of Bulgaria and Russia, descants upon the advisability of a "friendly Russian military occupation," and intones to the policy of Russia affording material support to a new Bulgarian government without interfering in the internal affairs of the country, "so as to harmonize Bulgaria's foreign policy with Russian Pan-Slavist interests. Bulgaria's vassalage to Turkey," adds the Novoe Vremya, "would afford convenient conditions to realize the above combinations if Russia bought, or obtained by other means, Turkey's suzerainty in Bulgaria."

ADVOCATES.

The St. Petersburg Gazette (German) says the most equitable solution of the Bulgarian problem would be for Russia to occupy in Bulgaria a position similar to that occupied by Austria in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the powers consenting as in the Austrian case.

APPROVED BY THE NEWS.

LONDON, September 7.—The Daily News approves of the Government's attitude on the Bulgarian question, explained by Sir J. Ferguson, Under Foreign Secretary, in the House of Commons yesterday.

SACRIFICE THE PRINCE.

BERLIN, August 22.—M. Du Gues, the Russian Foreign Minister, who isjourneing at present to Berlin, will, after his arrival, immediately visit Prince Bismarck at Coblenz.

The opinion of general here is that Germany and Austria, in view of the number of supporters Prince Alexander of Bulgaria in order to secure the alliance with Russia, Germany sympathizes with Prince Alexander.

GERMAN PRESS DISPUTED.

The St. Petersburg Gazette (German) says the most equitable solution of the Bulgarian problem would be for Russia to occupy in Bulgaria a position similar to that occupied by Austria in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the powers consenting as in the Austrian case.

THE RICHMOND CONVENTION.

A Scheme for the Reorganization of the Knights of Labor.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., September 7.—It is understood that at the National Convention of the Knights of Labor at Richmond next month changes in the present laws will be made that will amount practically to a complete reorganization of the Order. The district plan has not proven so successful as was expected, for the reason that in many places no men have been organized under it, and in consequence local strength has been divided. The great number of district assemblies also makes it impossible for the general assembly to give the assistance given by the Executive Board at the Cleveland meeting to keep up with business. The result is that the assemblies frequently can not be investigated promptly enough to prevent disastrous strikes. The national convention is to model the government after that of the United States—that is, to have State organizations, and the like.

The State Assembly, under the new plan, will have control of the territory under their jurisdiction, but the acts of their officers will be subject to review by the General Master Workman. Thus the General Master Workman, who now falls on his shoulders. The plan has been thoroughly canvassed, since the adjournment of the convention, and there is little doubt that it will be adopted.

THE MIGHTY FALLEN.

Martin Irons Arraigned for Drunkenness in a Police Court.

KANSAS CITY, September 7.—Martin Irons, the recent leader of the Knights of Labor of this district, was taken before Justice Worthen this morning on a charge of drunkenness. He wore a disheveled appearance and looked sordid. He impressed one as being a man whom few would trust with their welfare, and far less an organization of workingmen. After a short hearing the Judge remanded Irons for a short time. The remaining $125 was paid by a friend who was present, and the expert who released him. Martin was arrested, but was found intoxicated in the vicinity of Baltic Row. "We take him to the police station to change his vagrancy was to be placed against him. The cross-fallen leader, who had been a member of the Knights of Labor until lately, said he had not been out of town very long. About this time Chief Sheriff John Donahue, of the little city, said that he was reluctantly expressing the conviction that Bulgaria is of importance to Germany. As Prince Bismarck plays a large part in the table with the friends of the German powers it is reasonable to suppose that some arrangement will arise between the two countries. What the question of the succession to Prince Alexander, now in favor, is, is not known. The young men would come to this Martin," said the chief, and Martin looked more dejected than ever. A charge was formally entered of intoxication instead of vagrancy.

Federal Offenders.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., September 7.—In the United States Court to-day, F. E. Luckett of this city, Joseph Hammond of Christian County, and W. D. Steele of Sedalia, were enroled as attorneys. The Grand-jury returned a true bill against E. Rodgers and Harry Lane of Lawrence County for having and using contraband in the person of General Lee and G. W. Pendleton of Douglas County, president guilty to cutting timber on Government land and was sentenced to ten days in jail for damages.

ENFORCED IDLENESS OF THE RAILROAD.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—The railroad strike at Turkey still refusing to reopen, the threatening strike, which began the day of Prince Alexander's reign, has been a large trade which is greatly injuring the large trade which depends on the line for transportation.

VIENNA, September 7.—The Presses say: "Prince Alexander's abdication will be followed by a noble act that the spirit of succession will be peacefully and legally continued."

The Press urges the Government to pursue a "just and moderate policy of compensation, and to avoid the final policy of pulling the kingdom to pieces."

RESISTANCE OF THE CHAMBERS.

BUCKHORN, September 7.—The Chambers

say: "Prince Alexander's abdication was made public here early yesterday and raised a storm of popular consternation and indignation. Many officers of the army advanced resistance if Russia forcibly deposed Prince Alexander against the will of the people."

DELISLE'S DAMPER.

A BILL Alining a Death-Blow at Americans Aid for the Parsonnells.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, September 7.—It is announced that Mr. Edwin Delisle has intimated his intention of introducing a bill next session to disqualify any subject of the Queen to be elected to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Before during the election for said Parliament shall remain directly or indirectly foreign or alien pecuniary residence or for political assistance rendered or to be rendered, and to disqualify for a period of one year, and if elected, or if elected, from sitting in Parliament, any subject of the Queen who shall attempt to accept a scheme or implied purpose of recommending a policy for candidates to electors of the United Kingdom.

Ireland.

DISMISSED THE POLICE.

BELFAST, September 7.—A number of the county police who have been here on riot duty, have departed for their regular stations. A body of others will be dismissed downwards next week.

TROOPS FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, September 7.—The second battalion of the Grenadier Guards embarked at Woolwich to-day for Ireland.

India.

A SENSATIONAL REPORT.

PARIS, September 7.—The Journal des Debats publishes to-day a sensational report about an alleged uprising of the people of Northeastern India against British rule, and in favor of Russian invasion. The atmosphere was heavy and muddy and the sea only within a radius of two miles was visible. About 7 o'clock, the rain held up. No store or even cautionary signals were displayed from the Signal Service Station. The steam foghorns were in operation all night, and until about 7:30 o'clock. At that hour the sun's rays burst through an opening in the cloud bank and two distinct lights of almost blinding whiteness were thrown upon the ocean's bosom. The first sign of a gale. The air became clearer, and in a few minutes Conoy Island and the light-ships were plainly visible.

GETTING READY.

The yachts are now getting in position for a start. The weather is hazy in the bay and seems to be getting thick outside. Wind east-southeast, about eight miles.

THE WIND FALLS OFF.

At 8:30 a.m. the wind falls off to about four knots, and the fog begins to roll in from the sea. The racers will have to bunt in the tide, both out and in.

THE RACE BEGINS.

9:30 a.m.—The wind has increased to about eight knots, and is blowing from the south-southwest. The Galatea is leading the race, and about the point of the Hook is making good headway. The racers will be bunting in the wind, and will be tacking across and down to the southwest spits. The weather is still somewhat hazy. Clouds that indicate winds are moving up from the horizon.

THE START.

NEW YORK, September 7, 11 a.m.—The Mayflower slightly in the lead.

THE MAYFLOWER LEADS.

11:30 a.m.—The Mayflower has passed the port tack, having sailed half past the quarantining.

11:30 a.m.—The Mayflower is now passing the Wadsworth, over a quarter of a mile ahead.

THREE LENGTHS AHEAD.

11:45 a.m.—The Mayflower is about three lengths ahead of the Galatea near Hoffman Island.

LEADS BY HALF A MILE.

The Mayflower passed West Bank at 11:47 bound out. The Galatea passed West Bank at 11:53 bound out. The Mayflower is about a mile ahead.

SPLITTING TACKS.

11:50 a.m.—The Mayflower on the port tack crosses the Galatea's bow and is about five lengths in the lead to windward. They are splitting tacks off Hoffman's Island. The water is six miles southeast. The weather is fair.

CLOSE RACE.

12:15 p.m.—The Mayflower lags behind, and on the port stretch stood for Staten Island, and the slow crew of the Galatea had a hard time.

STILL IN THE LEAD.

12:30 p.m.—The Galatea has passed the port tack, leading the Galatea about a quarter of a mile ahead, tacked at 11:15, and headed for Coney Island, and is leading. The cutter lost her wind 15 minutes later. The Galatea went about. The Mayflower caught a streak of wind and windward. The weather is still somewhat hazy. Clouds that indicate winds are moving up from the horizon.

THE MAYFLOWER.

IN CONVENTION.

MEETING OF THE NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT DELEGATES.

The Temporary Organization Arranged by the Committee This Afternoon—Discussion Over the Admission of Delegates From the First, Second and Third Wards—The Political Situation.

Hon. John M. Glover had a walk-over at yesterday's primaries. As predicted in the Post-Dispatch, the only issue was in the membership of the new Congressional Committee. Mr. Glover being the only candidate who deserved the right, a resolution adopted by the Congressional Committee, to decide which set of delegates should represent that at the polls, in all cases where more than one ticket was out. The opposition to Glover recognizing the fact that Glover could not be beaten for the nomination this year, coaxed themselves to an effort to fix the committee for the next campaign, and with that end in view nominated what were apparently Glover tickets in three places. While the delegates on these tickets were pledged to vote for Glover's nomination elected to the position of Chairman of a division of the Pension Bureau, a position worth $3,400 per year. Dye is an out-and-out Republican and was in the Pension Office when appointed Chief of Police through ex-President Arthur.

Gen. Black Appoints a Republican.

A PARTISAN'S PISTOL

USED WITH FATAL EFFECT IN AN ELECTION ROW.

William Gooley, Bouncer of the Standard Theater, Fatally Shoots Constable James F. Ryan—The Wounded Man Returns the Fire—The Poor Reward of a Peacemaker—How the Shooting Occurred—Ryan Be-yond Hope.

The bad feeling engendered by the Congressional primaries in the First Ward yesterday terminated in a probable murder last evening. Constable Jas. F. Ryan is the victim, for whose death Private Watchman Bill Gooley of the Standard Theater will probably have to answer.

When the primaries opened yesterday it was found that Butler had gained possession of the polling place at Seventh street and Clark avenue and refused to admit the Glover judges and clerks who had received instructions to receive no votes except such as were cast for the ticket approved by the Congressmen. As a result the Glover party opened up a polling place at Tom Kelly's saloon on Market, just west of fifth street, where none but votes for the approved ticket were received, while at the Butler poll no approved votes were received. Among the leaders of the anti-Glover faction was Bill Gooley, an old striker for Butler. About 6:30 last evening he and Delegate Morrissey entered Kelly's saloon. Walking up to the bar Gooley remarked to the ex-champion middle weight: "Tom Kelly, just step out from behind the bar and I can do you up." Gooley claims to have made the remark in a joking manner, and says he frequently made similar remarks to the ex-pistol without the latter taking any offense. However that may be, Kelly did not take it in the light of a joke last evening and retorted quite sharply: "You can't and I'll have no such talk here. You may bluff all day long, but you'll be a dead theater, but you cannot do it in my place."

A FEW MORE WARM WORDS passed, and then Gooley, Morrissey and Companyman were in the bar. The other two entered, started out together, Gooley was quite drunk, and Ryan got hold of and endeavored to make his position as comfortable as possible under the circumstances which had now arrived.

THERE WAS A DESTITUTE FALLOON on Ryan's face and his excited friends knew some suggested an hospital, but Tom Kelly, who had arrived in the meantime, said he should be removed to his home at No. 295 North Ninth street, and his advice was taken. Ryan was taken there and Dr. Niedels did all in his power to save him. Dr. Niedels' office about 8 o'clock, and Dr. Niedels' friends, summoned John F. Ryan, superintendent of the Morgue, his brother. This was the son of the man who had been killed. He lives at No. 297 North Ninth street, while the constable lived with his mother at No. 925 North Ninth street. The boy was very ill. When the brother arrived the injured man wanted to know if his mother had been told of his trouble, and appeared much better when she heard him. She was always afraid to speak to the doctor, however, preferring him to prepare the mother for the sad intelligence. It was a terrible blow to the mother, who was very ill.

Defence of the Speaker of the House of Commons—Lord Randolph Churchill's Trick—The Powell Radical Plot—The Irish Members and Obstruction Tactics—Police Protection in Ulster—Theatrical Chat—An American Journalist's Letter.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

London, September 7.—Lord Randolph Churchill is sustaining the work of the session pest well. His friends express fears that he will not be able to bear up under the prolonged and bitter conflicts which will be inevitable next session. Obstructions have been so far successful. The session cannot now, in any case, end before the last week in September, and may possibly extend well into October. The Irish members know no secret of their determination to keep Parliament sitting, so as to raise, if necessary, constant difficulties with the government.

The Irish Unionists intend to pursue an active campaign in the country during the later autumn and winter months.

Lord Hartington, Messrs. Chamberlain, Caine, Finch, Russell and others will address

Kerr. The Liberal-Unionists intend

FAMILY SETTLEMENT.

FINAL CONCESSIONS THE HARNEY CASE GOES OUT OF COURT.

terms of the Compromise Submitted to Judge Dillon To-DAY—The Marriage Contract Sustained—A Marriage Institute Suits A Young Girl Against Her Employer—A de's Plaintiff.

Harney family litigation was settled this day by compromise between the parties, children and the General and wife. By the terms of the settlement Gen. Harney surrenders his estate to his children and they receive $500 a month during his life. All the assets of the firm of which he is co-owner by George Harney in fact is co-owned by his wife in accordance with the marriage contract. The children assume Gen. Harney's debt to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, which was originally $1,000, and they take all the money in the hands of the receiver and pay the costs.

By mutual concessions a case which air for a long time to occupy the attention of courts and to result in a fierce family battle has been amicably settled. The Court of Appeals for this city and State from 1884. The company charges that he is entitled to an account for the value of money received in his behalf. One thousand dollars paid into the hands of the receiver, $100 of which $85.65 paid by the same person, $15.57 and $120 by J. M. Tucker. Judgment is asked in respect of all the amounts.

But Against Axel B. Howard.

Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company filed suit this morning in the Circuit Court against Axel B. Howard who was agent for the company for this city and State from 1884. The company charges that he is entitled to an account for the value of money received in his behalf. One thousand dollars paid into the hands of the receiver, $100 of which $85.65 paid by the same person, $15.57 and $120 by J. M. Tucker. Judgment is asked in respect of all the amounts.

The Virchow Institute.

Application for incorporation of the Virchow Institute was presented to the Circuit Court by Emil Preterius, President; Dr. I. Ledderberg, Secretary, and Dr. Muehlmann, Treasurer. The object is the surgical treatment for deformities and deformities of rachitism by massage and other methods. Dr. Starkoff is the man and Dr. Hans Froehlich is the man of the new institute.

The Forsake Bride.

Judge Dillon took a suit last evening in the Circuit Court against Geo. M. Caudill, Black Rock, Ark., claiming damages sum of $10,000 for indecent assault. Miss Caudill alleges that she was employed in Mr. Caudill's store, and that the alleged assailant made there. The result of this interpretation upon the mind of Miss Anderson is that she is a widow and shamed herself in the city buying goods, and it was had upon him at a hotel.

ATTACKED BY A RAT.

A big Rodent Gnaws at the Throat of a Sleeping Girl.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, September 7.—On Tuesday night
last a sensation was naturally experienced in one of the most prominent apartment houses uptown by the earthquake, and on Friday night two more sensations occurred. The first was the supposed bursting of the hot water pipes which came near flooding the building so that the water had to be cut off. The second occurred at midnight when everybody was awakened by serenades in one of the apartments. The young daughter of a tenant was found sitting up in bed holding her hands to her breast, and the persister tried to wake her up. She persisted that some one had tried to kill her. There was a slight laceration of the skin on her throat and a small rash. The doors were all found locked and it was evident that no one from the outside could have assisted her. The next day she was a worn girl, turning down the counterpane, found a large rat, which was killed. The next day puncturing of the skin was discovered and covered that instead of bursting they had been gnawed through by rats. Yesterday rats were seen in the hallways and stairs of the house.
It was learned that before the earthquake no rats had been seen in the house.
It has since been learned that rats have been appearing with rats since the earthquake. A gentleman who has made a study of rats says, "The rats are compelled to gnaw because if he does not, his teeth grow so rapidly that his jaws become locked. If the rats do not gnaw they are not so sensitive to pain, and when cornered are very vicious. They are easily alarmed by running or jarring sounds.
The rats were not disturbed by the noise caused by the shocks of the earthquake last Tuesday so alarmed the rats that they left the city. They returned to the city at the siege of Paris, during the cannonade by the armies, that the concussion frightened thousands of rats from the sewers and cata-combs to the houses."

A LIFE FOR A RING.

The Tragic Termination of a Trivial Lawsuit in Virginia.

NEW YORK, September 7.—A Times special from Danville, Va., says: A desperate enemy took place at Horse Pasture, Henry County, Virginia, yesterday evening, during which a man named Baumson was shot and killed by T. J. Darlington, editor of the Henry News. There has been bad blood between Bausman and Darlington for some time. The story is that Baumson loaned a ring to a young lady as an engagement. After the ring was stolen, Baumson died and the young woman married a man named Doyle. After the marriage, Baumson was determined to get the ring, which was ignored. He then sued court to recover the ring, and the lady gave it to him. The ring several weeks later was lost. Baumson entered the room where Baumson was standing and soon died. Young Darlington was shot in the head and died. He grabbed Baumson and both fell out of bed. Darlington then fired at Baumson, striking him in the head. The latter still maintained his grip on Baumson's shoulder, placed the pistol at Baumson's breast, and again fired.
The bullet passed through the heart, causing instant death. Darlington was arrested and sent to Martinsville Jail.

ROSS AND THE ROBBERS.

An Illinois Farmer Fatally Wounds a Vineyard Thief.

JOLIET, Ill., September 7.—Frank Ross, a farmer here, has been bothered lately by thieves who have been robbing his vineyard.
About midnight he discovered the yard with a loaded shotgun. The thief, who was a negro, had crawled into the yard several times to get out, fired, fainted, and was taken to Frank Kruger, aged 19. Ross came to town last evening and reported the fact, but the thief was not arrested.

Every Knight Templar in the world, as well as all who may be interested in them, should secure one of the exquisite "Knight Tempore Concave Souvenir Medals." It is the size of a sixpence;
the price is only 60 cents. For sale by

AN AMERICAN'S ESTIMATE OF CHURCHILL, GLADSTONE AND PARNELL.

The Tory Leader an Able Man—A Prediction
Being Fulfilled—Gladstone a Great Parlia-

liamentary General—The Hartington-Chamberlain Coalition—English Parliamentary Oratory—An Interesting Interview with Mr. Allen Thorndike Rice.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, September 7.—Mr. Allen
Thorndike Rice of the North American Review arrived in the Etruria, and after much difficulty was found at the Brevoort House, and with still greater difficulty he was induced to speak about his recent trip abroad. He had been absent from the country for a month, and was brought back by his business and social connections, into close relation with the leaders of the English and Continental thought and politics. He was alternately fatigued and disengaged on the course of our Government in relation to Mexico in England? We think the general impression seemed to be that the States had acted in haste and would have to repeat at leisure."

"Did you know Randolph Churchill, and did you meet him?"

"Certainly; we were at Oxford together.
Only a short time before the election he prepared a speech on the subject of Union which would be returned to Parliament. I must say I was much surprised to find the list he had prepared realized almost to a man. Lord Randolph Churchill has marvelous capacity for gauging the popular sentiment."

"Do you regard him as an able man?"

"Yes, I certainly, and he has just that kind of ability which is needed for success in English politics at the present moment."

"Had you any belief when at Oxford with Lord Churchill in his efforts to take a prominent part in English politics?"

"Yes, I always predicted that he would be Prime Minister of England if he lived. I used to be laughed at for this prediction, but you see that it has practically come true already."

"Have you noticed the paragraph about Churchill's move toward Parnell? What do you think of it?"

"I think it merely proves the great capacity which Lord Randolph has for gauging the mood of the house."

"Did you ever meet Gladstone?"

"Yes, I have had that privilege often."

"He impresses me more as a great parliamentary leader than as a statesman."

"Do you think he still has the great capacity he had when he was a young man?"

in the public service."
